6. (Internal Use Only - PLC) Was unable to contact John Kwapisz, Senator James L. Buckley's (D., N. Y.) staff man who prepared the amendment by Senator Buckley to the recent changes in the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, which requires educational institutions to secure the permission of a student before permitting access by outside agencies to his records. I spoke to Kwapisz' secretary, who said that since the law was passed they had been deluged with calls from educational institutions and professional organizations averaging 100 a day. As a result, Senator Buckley is considering an amendment which would preclude access to information in educational records prior to a specific date which had been given in confidence. She said he was not considering any amendment to in any way broaden access by outside agencies to student records without the student's permission. I left my number and asked that Mr. Kwapisz contact me; she said she would check with him and call.

7. (Internal Use Only - PLC) Al Tarabochia, Chief Investigator, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, called. He had read the Director's interview in U. S. News and World Report, and expressed an interest on behalf of Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, to support the Director's efforts for a law to protect intelligence sources and methods. They offered their assistance in any way that we would deem helpful. Tarabochia thought the bill would be going to the Senate Judiciary Committee; I explained that since it was an amendment to the National Security Act of 1947 it would be a matter for the Senate Armed Services Committee to consider. We discussed the possibility of Jay Sourwine appearing as a witness to testify on the efforts by the opposition to capitalize on disclosures in publications such as Agee. I told him I would discuss his offer with our people and let him know.

8. (Unclassified - GLC) In the absence of Representative Peter Frelinghuysen, I spoke to Kathy Barrett, in his office, and asked her if Frelinghuysen could speak to our Advanced Intelligence Seminar on 17 December. She said the Congressman would be back on Monday and she would discuss it with him and get back in touch with us.

9. (Internal Use Only - RJK) Spoke with Mr. Hanna, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, in connection with his request for three intelligence reports: a 1954 report by General Doolittle's group for the White House and a 1949 report by Allen Dulles for the National Security Council and finally two Hoover Commission reports from 1949 and 1955. I told Hanna that we had no authority to release the first two reports and that there were two reports made to Congress on the Hoover Commission. He explained that the Committee staff is interested in learning more about the intelligence community as a result of their recent mandate in that field. I suggested that he confer with Marian Czarnecki, chief of staff of the Committee, to develop more specific areas of interest and then we would be happy to work with them in responding to these.

CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY

1. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Contacted Robert Hull, State Department, and George Gilbert, OMB, to advise them of the House Ways and Means Committee action to phase out section 912 of the Internal Revenue Code which excludes certain Governmental overseas allowances from gross income. Neither were previously aware of this action and said they would have it looked into promptly.

2. (Confidential - LLM) Received a call from Wheaton Byers, PFIAB staff, and reported that Col. John Walker, Vice President's Military aide, had a signed receipt indicating that the Director's 18 September 1974 letter had been personally delivered to Governor Rockefeller.

3. (Unclassified - BAO) In connection with his call of 25 November, Bill Jones, INR/State, called and asked if it would be possible for him to have another of the standard packages used by Mr. Thuermer answering requests for CIA material for use by college debate teams. Another copy will be sent to Mr. Jones.

STATOTHR 4. (Unclassified - GLC) Tried to reach Representative Albert Quie and in his absence talked with Mary Bradley, of his staff, regarding the Congressman's letter to the Director on correspondence he had received from [REDACTED] covering Victor Marchetti's allegations about the Agency functioning with the British in Northern Ireland. I told Miss Bradley we were working on responses to a number of letters that had been forwarded to us STATOTHR as a result of [REDACTED] correspondence and I expected we would be in touch with the Congressman tomorrow.

5. (Unclassified - JMD) Received a call from Joyce Campbell, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, who asked if we had any of the copies of the transcript of the Director's 11 July 1974 testimony on [REDACTED] After STATOTHR checking the files, I called her back and told her all three copies of the transcript had been returned to the Committee.
